

August revenue, by outlet

Every August event's invoice line items were pulled from Tripleseat and attributed to the outlet that served them. Anthology keeps the ballroom; Kamper's keeps the cocktail hour it hosted; standalone rooftop and Bar Rotunda events stay with their outlet. Service charge and admin fee are shown separately so revenue can be read with or without them.

Net is the Tripleseat grand total less sales tax and gratuity, the basis used throughout the 2026 booked-business work. Base is net less service charge and admin fee and equals Tripleseat's Event Actual. Each outlet's service charge, admin fee, tax and gratuity are its share of the event's own charges, in proportion to base. Le Suprême and HIROKI-SAN private dining rows in the export are their own book and are excluded; the 80/20 convention would have reported Anthology at roughly $431,865.

Toast keys bar packages across Liquor / Wine / Beer and rings ceremony, deposit and valet lines as Misc. Guest Fees, so beverage and fees only reconcile as a pair. Toast's Non-Grat Svc Charges line ($73,845) is service charge plus admin fee. Anthology's $431,686 across 35 A/R TripleSeat payments is the tax-inclusive figure.

Kamper's Toast reports 11 A/R TripleSeat payments: amount $103,923 (which carries sales tax $5,135) plus $17,120 in the Grat column. The admin fee ($4,181, 10 checks), room-rental fee ($9,000, 9 checks) and tax each land within $30 of the Tripleseat-derived figures, which confirms the Grat column is the event service charge and that Kamper's rings the cocktail hour of the bar package. Standalone events and the two extra rental checks are not itemised because those BEOs were not fetched for line items. Bar Rotunda ($2,710 net, UofM Alumni Reception) has no POS report to compare.

Kamper's carries the canapés, its $1,000/hour fee and the cocktail-hour share of the bar package. That runs 23–33% on every August wedding, not 20%: the convention understates Kamper's by $23,335 for the month and overstates Anthology by the same.

18 of 24 event days tie within $600. Remaining differences are photography sessions and Terrace Club rentals that were not rung on their event date (8/03, 8/17, 8/30) or rang a day early (8/10, 8/18).

How the split was built

- 1 Line items come from the invoice document. Tripleseat's API has no line-item endpoint. Each event's portal Invoice was fetched and parsed into food, beverage and fee lines with quantity, price and total.
- 2 Outlet follows the BEO's room headers. Coordinators mark where a block is served with an unpriced header row (KAMPERS, Kamper's Rooftop, Kammers Rooftop Lounge, Conservatory, Linden Room). Lines inherit the last header in their section; a line that names Kamper's, Rooftop or Bar Rotunda goes to that outlet regardless. A Kamper's header's scope closes at the first dinner-service line, because not every BEO adds the downstairs header (Melissa Harvey 8/01).
- 3 The cocktail hour of the bar package is Kamper's. With headers alone every shared wedding's Anthology figure sat $2,200–2,900 above Toast. Moving one hour of the five-hour package (1.5 for Megan Hannigan) to Kamper's brings six of seven within $800 of Toast, and Kamper's admin, rental and tax lines then land within $30.
- 4 Standalone rooftop and Rotunda events are 100% that outlet and never touch the Anthology figures: thyssenkrupp (8/20), the Bernier cocktail hour (8/21, its own event), Fritz baby shower (8/23) and UofM Alumni at Bar Rotunda (8/12).

Exceptions worth knowing

- ! Megan Hannigan 8/22 — BEO has no Kamper's header at all. Toast Anthology is $10,710 under Tripleseat that day, which is exactly the canapés (5:00–6:30 PM, the Kamper's reception window) and seafood tower. They were served and rung at Kamper's; this report moves them there. Her Kamper's share is 33% once corrected.
FIX AT SOURCE: ADD THE KAMPER'S ROOM HEADER ON THE BEO
- ! Kamper's net is $3,139 under Toast. The gap sits in the three standalone events, whose BEOs were not fetched for line items, so their base is Tripleseat's Event Actual rather than a parsed invoice. Fetching those three would close it.
- Lambda Legal (six days) and the 70th Birthday Dinner carry a $500–1,500 room-rental line the invoice does not itemise; it stays with Anthology either way. Photography sessions and Terrace Club rentals have no invoice lines and are 100% Anthology.
